Campaign Reporting Violations

Lumber Association of California & Nevada Political Action Committee, a state general purpose committee sponsored by the Lumber Association of California & Nevada, and treasurer Jan E. Hansen failed to file a pre-election campaign statement in October 2003, and made campaign expenditures of $100 or more in cash during 2003 and 2004. Penalty $8,500

Louise Gund, a resident of the City of Berkeley, failed to timely disclose a $75,000 late contribution on both paper and electronic filings for November 2005. Gund also failed to timely file a paper semi-annual campaign statement covering January 1 through December 31, 2005. Penalty $8,500

Statements of Economic Interests

California law requires elected officials, certain board members and governmental employees, and consultants employed by governmental entities to fill out Statements of Economic Interests (SEIs or Form 700s). SEIs serve a dual purpose: they make a filer aware of personal economic interests relative to a governmental decision, and they are an important disclosure document for the public and media.

Michael Chang, California Earthquake Authority member, failed to timely file a 2006 annual statement of economic interest. Penalty $200
